

Parenting is Risky Business

Why You Can't Afford to Be Clueless

Wednesday, May 9, 2007
Lakeland High School Cafeteria
1349 East Main Street
Shrub Oak, NY 10588

6:30—Light Dinner and Welcome

7:00—Program with Question and Answer Period to Follow

Free and open to the public—adults only please

Join other parents and community members as experts discuss in an open and frank manner what every parent needs to know:

- ✓ Keeping Your Teenager Safe on the Road: Update on DWI Laws, graduated licensing, the dangers faced by inexperienced and distracted teen drivers
- ✓ MySpace and other Internet Activities –just who is your teenager talking to? What you need to know about the dangers of cyberspace bullying and more
- ✓ Sex, drugs and alcohol among teens including the abuse of over-the-counter and prescription drugs
- ✓ Depression among teens and what you can do to help your child
- ✓ Other destructive behaviors you need to know about
- ✓ Resources within the school and community

Come and learn, ask questions, make your job as a parent easier

This forum is proudly co-sponsored by Lakeland High School's Parents for Lakeland, Alliance for Safe Kids, Panas Parents' Council, Student Assistance Services and the Yorktown District PTSA.

Questions? Please call Jodi at 914-528-0600, ext. 272