September 4, 2008

Dear Parents and Students,

I hope that the beginning of the 2008-2009 school year is off to a great start. Our teachers and staff members are very happy to be back. They are very much looking forward to working with their students throughout the year.

At this time, I am pleased to announce the addition of two School Resource Officers at Yorktown Central School District. Police Officer Thomas Nadoraski has been assigned to Yorktown High School as a replacement for Brian Shanahan who was promoted to Detective. Officer Nadoraski is a nineteen year veteran with the police department. He has served as a police instructor and supervisor. Officer Nadoraski is the recipient of a life surviving medal and a combat cross during his tenure as an officer.

Through the generosity of Senator Vincent Leibell who awarded a $50,000 grant to Yorktown Central School District, a School Resource Officer, Brian Mundy, was assigned to Mildred E. Strang Middle School for the first time this year. Officer Mundy has worked with students and administrators in a variety of venues during his time on the force. He has extensive experience in a variety of law enforcement strategies and techniques. We are very happy to have officers Nadoraski and Mundy as members of our school community. We are confident that they will provide our students with a safe environment that is conducive to learning while fostering responsible behavior and good citizenship.

Sincerely,

Dr. Ralph Napolitano
Superintendent of Schools
